OFFICE TALK

Our Software Survey

We recently sent out a survey to measure the satisfaction of our LivestockOffice software package. Thanks to everyone who took the time to complete it. I know everyone cringes when they see a survey. But we got some very pleasing results and some great comments to work on and make improvements. Your input is valuable to us in making sure we keep the software 'working for you'. If you didn't find time to complete it, your in luck, theres still time. Thanks again.

PAYE and GST filing and payments.

As from September 2013, the IRD will be ceasing to send paper forms for you to complete.

You must register your User Name and create a Password with the IRD to use "MyIR".

Payments will also be expected to be made using online Banking through the IRD site. So now is the best time to set that up and become familiar with the process.

We have a "How to?" document of the procedures, so please email your request.

Shearing News

Weather !!!!!!!

The grim fact about the weather. The drought has caused the slaughter of 650,000 ewes and therefore reduced the national clip. To add to Contractors and farmers woes, May and June were uncommonly wet, further disrupting the beginning of pre-lamb shearing. With that in mind, farmer clients and staff will be selective and the Contractor will be very careful to run his business economically.

But the bright spot is the price for crossbred wools increased 3 to 7% in June 27th sale with 97% of the offering sold.

As you are aware, Shebiz Ltd is developing new multiuser payroll and accounting Software especially for Contractors with new modern technology such as 'smart phones'. Shebiz expects testing to take a few months and "PAYBIZ" will be available prior to the new payroll year in 1914.

"None teacher"

"No Johnnie, there are still 19 sheep left in the paddock, obviously you don't know your arithmetic"

"Sorry teacher, but I do know my arithmetic, obviously you don't know sheep"
